

Today morning our students took part in a lecture on Security of ICT and they had a workshop with an IT expert: MSc Terezia Mézešová – an application security expert, working for the Siemens Healthineers company. She introduced students to a range of ideas: what threatens us on the Internet today, how can we protect our privacy and what rules should a company follow to keep its data safe and secure.

